

English Language KS4 Crossword 1

English Worx

EclipseCrossword.com

Across

1. Writing or speech designed to persuade.
2. Pinion factories reproduced, making them seem human! (anag., cryptic)
3. It flies in English classes (cryptic)
4. A girl might begin this type of repetition.
5. Confused, I trip on tee, again and again and again (cryptic)
6. AA mall could make a great orator.
7. Something you might want to do before an exam - or something to help you write good paragraphs!
8. Leg walking backwards gives something neither solid nor liquid.
9. Appeal to an audience through facts and logic.
10. Something Dr King had repeatedly.
11. Elusive part (anag) expresses the highest quality of something.
12. Trees (anag.) Abrupt or to the point.

Down

1. Help boy (anag.) exaggerates!
2. Emotional appeal to an audience.

3. Language that expresses emotion.
4. Home part, remodelled, produces figure of speech.
5. An opposition or contrast of ideas, is ant heist rebuilt.
6. Second person.
7. Person who comes after you, perhaps?
8. An expression designed to call something to mind
9. Everyone's favourite subject.
10. Tool used backwards produces lots of money.
11. Something an article might give.
12. Lee goes back to make fish.